

INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE OF THE RED CROSS

IN GENEVA

ICRC PRESIDENT

A plenary meeting of the International Committee of the Red Cross has elected its future President. Its choice was Mr. Alexandre Hay of Geneva, Vice-Chairman of the Board of the Swiss National Bank, and member of the ICRC.¹

Mr. Hay will take office on 1 July 1976, succeeding Dr. Eric Martin, who has agreed to continue until that date.

Mr. Roger Gallopin, President of the ICRC Executive Board has agreed to the extension of his mandate until the end of 1976.
