ARTICLES SUBMITTED FOR PUBLICATION IN THE INTERNATIONAL REVIEW OF THE RED CROSS

The International Review of the Red Cross invites readers to submit articles relating to the various humanitarian concerns of the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement. These will be considered for publication on the basis of merit and relevance to the topics to be covered during the year.

● Manuscripts will be accepted in English, French, Spanish, Arabic or German.

Texts should be typed, double-spaced, and no longer than 25 pages (or 6 000 words). Please send diskettes if possible.

● Footnotes (no more than 40) should be numbered superscript in the main text. They should be typed, double-spaced, and grouped at the end of the article.

● Bibliographical references should include at least the following details: (a) for books, the author's initials and surname (in that order), book title (underlined), place of publication, publishers and year of publication (in that order), and page number(s) referred to (p. or pp.); (b) for articles, the author's initials and surname, article title in inverted commas, title of periodical (underlined), place of publication, periodical date, volume and issue number, and page number(s) referred to (p. or pp.). The titles of articles, books and periodicals should be given in the original language of publication.

● Unpublished manuscripts will not be returned.

● Published works sent to the editor will be mentioned in the list of publications received and, if considered appropriate, reviewed.

● Manuscripts, correspondence and requests for permission to reproduce texts appearing in the Review should be addressed to the editor.

Articles, studies, and other signed texts from non-ICRC sources published in the Review reflect the views of the author alone and not necessarily those of the ICRC.
