

3. Decides to convene a United Nations preparatory conference for the conference referred to in paragraph 2 above and requests the Secretary-General to transmit invitations to all States and parties invited to attend the Diplomatic Conference on the Reaffirmation and Development of International Humanitarian Law Applicable in Armed Conflicts;

4. Recommends that the preparatory conference should meet once in 1978 for organizational purposes and, subsequently, with the task of establishing the best possible substantive basis for the achievement at the United Nations conference of agreements as envisaged in the present resolution and of considering organizational matters relating to the holding of the United Nations Conference;

5. Requests the Secretary-General to assist the Preparatory Conference in its work;

6. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-third session an item entitled "United Nations Conference on Prohibitions or Restrictions of Use of Certain Conventional Weapons which may be Deemed to be excessively injurious or to have Indiscriminate Effects: report of the United Nations preparatory conference".

CORRIGENDUM

In its December 1977 issue, International Review published the text of a United Nations resolution entitled "Respect of human rights in armed conflicts".

The number of this resolution is A/32/44 and its date is 8 December 1977. Readers are kindly requested to note that the reference number which appeared in our last issue (A/C.6/32/L.6) was that of the Committee which examined the resolution and not of the General Assembly.
